

A De Salaberry Hero Dead.

QUEBEC, March 13.—Another of those brave and patriotic men who made Col. De Salaberry's name famous, is dead. His name was Thomas Louillane, and he fought under De Salaberry at Chateaugay. He was in his 100th year, and leaves behind a widow, aged 94. He had 77 years of married life, 19 children, 88 grandchildren and 106 greatgrandchildren, and 123 of this wonderful posterity are still living.